Teacher Report:

- - End of the marking period is March 31
- - The entire school has now seen Hidden Figures
- - The school play, Little Mermaid, closed with great success. The acting, the music and the sets were tremendous. Special thanks to Pat Murray and company. More than 125 students participated.
- - PSSA tests are coming up
- - 6th grade finished "Funbruary" and participated in Brain Games at Springton Lake Middle School. Trip to DC is coming up and are getting ready for Diversity Training from the high school.
- -7th grade had an awesome time at Winterfest including dancing, table tennis, bounce house and bottle flipping. Spanish classes created skits with iMovie. Science students are working on diseases. Class t-shirts are expected soon.
- -8th grade permission slips for NYC are out and Mrs. Cobb is looking for contact information for the 8th grade dance.

Treasurer's Report: Kris Laubscher

- $17,709.95 is last month's bank balance.

Principal Report: Joe Beuchler

- A draft of the SHMS vision statement was distributed. Feedback should be directly to George King.

Committee Reports

- - Rita's night will be coming next month
- - Refreshments at the play made about $1400 but highly recommended to have two people on the committee next year
- - Next year consider more backstage help
- - Book fair the week of April 17th in the school and May 15th online
- - it was suggested that the extra candy from the spring play could go to the 6th grade fun day
